outrageous and failing dramatically.

Movie of the Week

Food, Inc. is a 2008 American documentary film directed by Robert Kenner. The film examines large-scale agricultural food production in the United States, concluding that the meat and vegetables produced by this type of economic enterprise leads to inexpensive but unhealthy and environmentally-harmful food.

Album of the Week

Portishead - Dummy

The 1994 debut album of the Bristol-based group Portishead. Building on the promise of their earlier EP—"Numb"—it helped to cement the reputation of Bristol as the capital of Trip hop.
